ESTHER

The king was angry with his wife and looked for a new queen.

Esther was beautiful and the king was very happy to make her queen.

Her cousin was scared because he was going to be killed along with many other people who believed in God.

He asked Queen Esther to talk to the king. She loved her cousin and wanted to help him.

The king was angry that the prime minister was so cruel and ordered him to be killed instead. Esther said a prayer, thanking God for looking after them.

Cut out and match the pictures to the words in red:
Click here to take you to the craft page.

Print pages 1 & 2 onto card and follow the instructions below to create this 3D picture.

(You can print more pages to make the frame as shown below. Very effective, but it takes much longer!)

(Use sticky foam shapes to stick your pieces onto the background)

1. Cut out the main background picture and all the pieces.
2. Stick the curtain pieces in place.
3. Put the pillar in front of the curtains.
4. Stick Esther on the left hands side of the pictures.
5. Now add the King touching Esther’s hand with the royal sceptre, which meant she was welcome and allowed to speak to him.

Used with kind permission from http://www.mylittlehouse.org/