Jesus and his disciples were going to Jerusalem. He sent two of them to find a donkey for him to ride.

They put a cloak on the back of the donkey to make it comfortable for him.

They all walked into Jerusalem and crowds of happy people stood by the side of the road waving palm branches. They shouted 'Hosanna' which means 'Praise God'.

When he got to the temple he got off the donkey, raised his hands and prayed to God.
Draw a line to find the small pictures in the big picture

jip/aslan  pic reproduced from: http://www.freebibleimages.org